

The 2012

Keith Hall

DRUM CHOIR

XPERIENCE

Saturday, November 10, 2012
8:00 am to 6:00 pm

Western Michigan University's Dalton Center
5:30 pm Concert

Experience one full and intense day of drums on the campus of Western Michigan University. Work with Keith Hall and his staff to learn the fundamentals of classic drum vocabulary in a drum choir setting. This exciting day of drums is open to 20 drummers and will culminate in an evening performance.

- What is a drum choir?

A drum choir is a drum set ensemble that plays melodies, solos and ensemble ideas. This format allows for endless possibilities and fun.

- Who is Keith Hall?

Keith Hall, Professor of Jazz Drum Set at Western Michigan University and author of Jazz Drums Now!, is the director of the Keith Hall Summer Drum Intensive. He has recorded and toured around the world with Curtis Stigers, his own band TRI-FI, and the NYC Afro-Cuban band Grupo Yanqui.

SIGN UP TODAY!

TUITION: $99

Price includes lunch.
Bring your drum set.

Hurry! Space is limited to 20 drummers!
Deadline is October 10th.

- DEADLINE OCTOBER 10th -

Sign up online at KeithHallMusic.com or mail sign-up form and check to:

"Keith Hall Music"
306 Parkland Terrace
Portage, MI 49024

Questions?

201-406-5059 or keith@keithhallmusic.com

Keith's New Book!

Jazz Drums Now!
BY KEITH HALL

Patterns, Phrases, and Play-Alongs
for the Developing Drummer

MP3 CD included featuring the Total Play-Along System

KeithHallMusic.com